

The Children of Willesden Lane Bay Area BIG READ

EDUCATORS SIGN UP NOW!
YOUR SCHOOL AND STUDENTS CAN PARTICIPATE IN THIS UNIQUE EDUCATIONAL PROGRAM

The Children of Willesden Lane Bay Area BIG READ is a powerful educational initiative for grades 6 – 12. It teaches youth about the Holocaust, the importance of standing up against bigotry and hatred, and the transformative nature of art.

The program includes a book and classroom activities, and culminates in an award winning theatrical production by concert pianist and acclaimed storyteller Mona Golabek about how the power of music helped one young woman survive the Holocaust as a refugee. The performance is based on her book, The Children of Willesden Lane.

Performances of The Children of Willesden Lane
November 7 – 10, 2016 • Herbst Theatre, San Francisco

Over 7,000 students and teachers from Northern California will participate in the program which has been making its way around the country with spectacular reviews.
