

Jewish Family and Children's Services

Holocaust Center

Award Timeline

February 2, 2018

Due: Nominations for Educators

February 28, 2018

Due: Education Application

March 5, 2018

Due: Online Recommendation Form

April 2, 2018

Award Winners Contacted

April 11, 2018

Yom HaShoah & Award Presentation Ceremony

Morris Weiss was a founder of the Holocaust Center. A Holocaust survivor who testified at Nazi war crimes trials, he was dedicated to fighting discrimination and anti-Semitism. In his memory his family established a scholarship fund.

The Morris Weiss Award for Holocaust & Genocide Education

THE AWARD

The JFCS Holocaust Center's Preisler Shorenstein Institute is excited to grant three teachers in the Bay Area $1,000 for professional development, and an additional grant of $1,500 to their schools.

The award honors the memory and legacy of Bay Area Holocaust survivor and activist Morris Weiss. In recognition of Mr. Weiss's commitment to Holocaust education, this award is intended to continue the advancement of Holocaust and genocide education.

APPLY OR NOMINATE:

To Apply or Nominate an Educator for the Morris Weiss Award, visit:
www.jfcs-holocaustcenter.org/weiss-award

CONTACT:

Alexis Herr, Associate Director, JFCS Holocaust Center
AlexisH@jfcs.org, 415-449-1281
www.jfcs-holocaustcenter.org

facebook.com/JFCSHolCenter

@JFCSHolocaustCenter

@HolocaustJFCS