

ANTISEMITISM

How to Identify It and What to Do

The best way to counter antisemitism is to recognize and respond to it.

RECOGNIZE

Antisemitic behaviors can be intentional or unintentional actions involving stereotyping, imagery, and language.

Antisemitic incidents include vandalism, harassment or assault against a person or property where either:

- circumstances indicate an anti-Jewish motivation or
- a reasonable person could plausibly conclude they were being targeted due to their Jewish identity.

RESPOND

Scan the QR code or enter the URL for support to develop your response to antisemitic behaviors and incidents.

- 1 Report
Report incidents to the ADL: www.adl.org/report. Receive prompt guidance on documenting and investigating the nature and impact of antisemitic incidents and behaviors.
- 2 Outreach & Communication
Seek guidance for communicating about the incident to the school, district, and/or broader community.
- 3 School Community Programming
Convene town halls, panels, assemblies, or other programming in collaboration with the school community and partner organizations to educate and unify the school and wider community.
- 4 Educator Resources & Professional Learning
Provide curricular resources, classroom instruction, professional learning, and speaker presentations to educate and counter antisemitism and other prejudices and stereotypes.
